A p p l i c a t i o n F o r m

Jeff Miller, one of the most renowned furniture and chairmakers in the US, and a contributor to Fine Woodworking is coming to town. For the Friday to Sunday, October 20-22nd, he will be giving a class on a Shaker Side Table (please note the table in the photo is not the exact table, but is a similar type. He will be demonstrating various techniques he has learned over the years, both with hand tools and body positioning that will be invaluable to all members. We rarely get this opportunity, so please sign up early. There are two prices involved. The first is for the class, which will be $110. For that we require a $50 deposit; please bring a cash or a check along with this form.

Since wood is required, we will provide a precut list. You can then simply bring those pieces to the class. However, Program Chairman Corey Tighe can provide the wood already precut for you, as well as taper the legs, in cherry, for $100. Deadline for the wood is September 23rd.
