Education & Course Grant Application

Grant amount: up to $1000.00 • Open to eligible LIW members • Reviewed and awarded by the LIW Board

The Long Island Woodworkers (LIW) is pleased to offer a grant of up to $1000.00 to help an eligible member take a woodworking course of their choice. Completed applications are reviewed by the LIW Board, which has sole discretion to approve or decline funding. In return, the recipient agrees to give a minimum of two (2) presentations on what they learned: one at a general meeting, and one at a meeting of a Special Interest Group (SIG) whose focus closely aligns with the course topic, or at a SIG meeting if requested by that group's members. A member who would rather not present alone may ask another LIW member to help deliver either presentation.

4. Grant Terms & Presentation Commitment

By submitting this application, I acknowledge and agree to the following terms if my grant is approved:

1. The grant of up to $1000.00 will be applied toward the tuition/fees of the course described on page 1.
2. I will complete the course and give a minimum of two (2) presentations on what I learned:
   (a) one presentation at a general meeting, and
   (b) one presentation at a meeting of a Special Interest Group (SIG) whose focus closely aligns with the course topic, or at a SIG meeting if requested by that group's members.
3. If I would rather not present alone, I may ask another LIW member to co-present with me, for either presentation.
4. I understand the LIW Board reviews all applications and has sole discretion to approve, decline, or adjust the amount of this grant.

☐ I agree to the grant terms above and the two-presentation commitment.

☐ I would like to request help from another member to co-present.
